

Adorning the Bimah

Families typically sponsor the Bimah flowers used for Shabbat services for Friday night & Saturday morning. Please contact Ann Epstein 314.872.8159. If you prefer, you may add or substitute decorative food baskets from the Jewish Food Pantry 314.993.1000.

Oneg Shabbat

It is traditional for family members or friends to sponsor the Friday night Oneg. The cost is $200 which includes a variety of food and drinks. Contact us for details, options, and items you may add for an additional fee.

Shabbat Evening Dinners

Members may rent the Bridge for Shabbat dinner for $200. TI now provides Shabbat evening catering or you may use the caterer of your choice. Please meet with the TI Kitchen Manager to finalize arrangements. Caterers must set up, clean up and follow all TI guidelines.

Our Promise to You

Our friendly and knowledgeable staff will diligently work with you to ensure you have a memorable experience with us. As a catering service within TI, we are uniquely positioned to provide you with great service at a very affordable price. If blessed with the opportunity to work with you, we will meet or beat any proposal to provide similar services. We realize there are other catering options but no one can match our quality or affordability.

Outside Catering Services

You may, at your discretion, choose to use any caterer approved by TI. Prior to any event, the outside catering service must meet with the Kitchen Manager. We cannot combine services. One caterer must be responsible for all food, set up and clean up. They must follow all TI Caterer guidelines.

Saturday Evening Parties

We welcome having your Saturday evening affair or children's party at TI as well. For more information, please contact Eli, our Executive Director at (314) 432-8050.
